

ADVANCING RESEARCH THROUGH PARTNERSHIPS

Survey results from 500+ Accelerate and Elevate supervisors

Research Advancements

Without Mitacs' support, half the projects would not have been possible

Indicated significant progress on a research problem

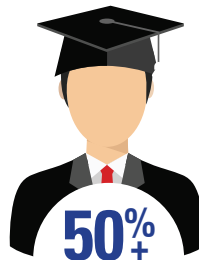

Said the programs contributed to the advancement of their academic research program

Said they contributed to the advancement of their industrial research program

Improved Graduate Training

Recruited new grad students or postdocs

70%

Believe the programs prepared grad students and postdocs for a variety of career paths

75%

Elevate supervisors observed an increase in all the key competencies in the research management training

Outcomes for Partners

40%+

Developed new or enhanced products

50%+

Reported new or enhanced processes

33%

One third are commercializing the project results, while another third anticipate commercialization

66%+

More than two-thirds continued to develop research from the projects

60%

Continued to formally collaborate with their partner organizations

82%

Accelerate Supervisors

80%

Elevate Supervisors

Will engage in future collaborations with the private sector

The Mitacs Accelerate and Elevate programs support research collaborations between university and private-sector partners.

Source: www.mitacs.ca/en/newsroom/publication/accelerate-elevate-outcomes-supervisors-survey

Mitacs